Robbie never grew up playing soccer. He was originally a baseball player. He tried out for water polo in high school and continued playing polo and swimming in junior college. At the age of 19, he started coaching youth swimming. He coached swimming and water polo off and on for nearly 30 years. He was an assistant coach for the G2010 Blast team for 2 years and this will be his second year as head coach. He surrounds himself with people who know the game so the athletes develop and we make sure they have fun. He's currently in his 21st year as a middle school PE teacher. He makes sure the teams he coaches try hard, are competitive, and have fun.
