Justin started coaching recreational soccer while still in high school in Arizona. After coaching three seasons he left for college and picked it back up when his daughters started playing recreational soccer in PYSL. He coached for PYSL for 7 seasons before starting the 2007 Blast Girls team which is now in its seventh season together. He handed that team off to Coach Alain Reyes to give them a fresh perspective. Justin then helped start a 2013 Blast Girls team which is starting its first season in fall 2022. He believes in creating a fast-paced, positive environment that places emphasis on player decision-making and accountability to one another.
